Village Reconsiders Parking Lot Study

The Antioch village board will reconsider the possibility of doing a feasibility study on a parking lot behind the stores on the east side of Main St.

Two weeks ago the board voted 4-2 against a study proposed by trustee Mike Haley and backed by Diane (Willie) Kasik. They asked for a study by the firm of Harland and Bartholomew at a cost of between $2,500 and $3,000.

In the last two weeks the village planning commission and the Chamber of Commerce have asked the trustees to reconsider.

Monday night they reconsidered. The vote was 3-3 and Mayor Robert C. Wilton broke the tie with a "yes" vote.

Further consideration on the study will be delayed for two weeks while the mayor seeks an estimate from another planning firm.

Sidewalks Are Planned Near Oakwood Knolls

The village of Antioch will receive $33,354 for sidewalks from a federal grant program allotted to Lake County for 1977.

Lake Villa township will receive $19,825 for sidewalks and $24,002 for park facilities.

Lindenhurst will get $19,534 for the development of Willow Park.

AT MONDAY'S Antioch village board meeting, trustee Mike Haley said:

"I'm hopeful we can get the much-needed sidewalks that will help people from the Oakwood Knolls area."

Haley said the sidewalks for Oakwood Knolls probably would be constructed on North Ave.

In other action, the village board said that Peter Mandas of Mundelein will receive a permit to remodel existing buildings at the northeast corner of Hy. 83 and Rte. 173, just south of the high school. Mandas plans to build a restaurant.

A special use permit was granted to Dr. George Sedivec for the house at 505 Orchard St., just next door to Roland's Bakery. Dr. Sedivec will use the house as a residence and for dental offices.

VILLAGE CLERK Marilyn Sterbenz was authorized to advertise for bids for municipal garbage pick-up. Alternate bids will be sought on a once-a-week and twice-a-week basis. The village wants to determine which garbage pick-up system will be the least costly to taxpayers.

Lori Townsend, a part-time dispatcher at the police station was hired on a full-time basis to replace Valerie Baczynski, who resigned Tuesday after six years of service.

Village Plan Presentations Open to Public

Public presentations on Antioch's proposed new comprehensive plan will be given at 7 p.m. on Sunday and at the same time next Tuesday.

The presentations will be given at the village hall by Ken Wierschem, chairman of the village planning commission.

"We want people to have a chance to see the plan prior to the public hearing on Mar. 3 and, hopefully, subsequent adoption by the village board," Wierschem said.

"We think the public will be interested in seeing what we have come up with," Wierschem added. He said the presentation takes about one hour.

The proposed plan is in book form and is on sale at the village hall.

Parents Night, Title Game Saturday

It will be "Parents Night" Saturday when Antioch High's basketball team plays Woodstock here at 8 o'clock.

Parents of the Antioch players and cheerleaders will be guests of honor.

The game also may decide the eventual conference champion, since Antioch leads the league and Woodstock is second.

More stories and pictures of Antioch basketball appear in the sports section.

Feb. 29 is Antioch's Birthday: Y'all Come!

We're all invited to a birthday party.

On Feb. 29, the village of Antioch will be (according to Mayor Robert C. Wilton) "21 years old and 84 years young."

The mayor said an "open house" will be held at the village hall on Sunday, Feb. 29, from 1 to 3 p.m. Cake, coffee and champagne will be served.

The village was incorporated on Feb. 29, 1892, and because of that leap year date has had only 20 previous opportunities to celebrate its birthday.

Rescue Squad Calls Total 95

The Antioch Rescue Squad made 11 calls last week, raising its total for the year to 95.

Most of last week's calls were to administer first aid, and in eight cases the squadmen transported the victims to hospitals in Waukegan, Great Lakes and Libertyville.

THE ODDEST ICE-FISHING SHACK at the weekend fishing derby on Channel Lake was worth prizes and displayed by Ray Edwards, 12, of Antioch. He said Dan Moore and Mike Moore helped him build it. Ray won a wristwatch, a belt buckle and two gift certificates.

Spring-Like Weather Doesn't Stop Derby

By CHARLES P. RAYMAN

An unexpected, drastic rise in temperature, coupled with extreme high winds, converted Channel Lake from a lovely, snow-covered panorama into an icy, water-slick challenge to even the most ardent disciple of Izaak Walton for the 16th annual Ice Fishing Derby of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club and the 885 Club.

The event was conducted as scheduled last Saturday and Sunday.

Proving their dedication and confidence, an estimated 4,500 persons turned out and converted the south end of the lake into a small community dotted with shelters and groups of anglers, all seeking the elusive fish needed to qualify for prizes.

The 885 Club is dedicated to raising funds for civic and other charities while the Conservation Club's objectives are the promotion of hunting and fishing, and improvement of environmental and ecological situations.

valuable prizes while enjoying themselves in the process.

The first prize, a new Evinrude snowmobile, was won by Mr. N. Szymczak of Chicago. Second prize, a trip to Las Vegas for two, was won by Irma Hostetler of Antioch.

Don Andrade of Wilmette lucked out on the twin snowmobile trailer. Richard Heitz, Westmont, Ill., was the winner of the color TV and Ed Wasson of Antioch wound up the owner of the outboard motor.

Vi Raduli of Lake Villa walked off with a 10-speed bicycle and Jack Armstrong of the Tarfu Club won the his-and-hers snowmobile suits.

Other prizes were a sleeping bag taken by Bruce Dumai of Hanover Park, and Mike Berns of Cicero took home the Rid-O-Ray Insect Device.

Two unidentified winners holding drawing tickets Nos. 149325 and 149326 (Mustarz) won the ice shelter plus the portable bar, radio and snowmobile suit. If they will contact Norm Rockow at 395-1210, they can claim their prizes.

LARGEST FISH prizes won by Antioch contestants included:

- A 31-inch northern pike hooked by James Rockow.

- A 10-inch striper caught by Jerry Budill. He also won with a 14-inch channel catfish.

- A nearly 9-inch-long perch caught by Randy Marcusson.

The Town Crier

At Monday night's village board meeting, Mayor Bob Wilton threw a pencil at a member of the audience, Bill Patterson.

Interviewed later, Mr. Patterson said the pencil hit him in the side and he thought he felt some pain. He said, yes, he might consider a lawsuit.

We're putting you on.

It was all in fun.

The mayor had just cast a tie-breaking vote to reconsider a feasibility study for a parking lot behind the stores on the east side of Main St.

Mr. Patterson, who was there to encourage the study, said, upon the mayor's vote:

"Good. Now you can put in that air conditioner."

The mayor, who sells air conditioners in his full-time business, broke into a big smile and playfully tossed the pencil at Mr. Patterson. The entire room broke up in laughter.

But we lack the answer to an important question. Did the mayor get his pencil back or did Mr. Patterson keep it?

WE'RE HAPPY to hear that Dick Radke is home, recuperating from his brief stay at Victory Memorial Hospital.

Liberals Admit Their Programs Didn't Work

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Are American liberals beginning to write off the programs of the Great Society as governmental blunders?

One gets that distinct impression these days when listening to Democratic presidential hopefuls trying to come to grips with the overriding issues of extravagant government bureaucracy.

For example, Rep. Morris Udall (D-Ariz.) in a recent Meet the Press interview conceded that programs such as Medicare and Supplemental Security Income have not worked.

He also suggests that whoever becomes the Democratic nominee in 1976 will have to forget about the trend toward big government started by President Franklin D. Roosevelt back in 1932 and carried on through Truman's Fair Deal, Kennedy's New Frontier and Johnson's Great Society.

THERE IS no intention here to suggest that the liberals are giving up on their dreams of full employment, federalized welfare and redistribution of American wealth.

They are merely willing to concede that some recent additions to the federal bureaucratic superstructure were ill advised and too costly. They want to spend comparable amounts of money but do it differently.

But those genuinely concerned about how long the working population of this country can support the burden of the nonworking population do not think this liberal gimmick is good enough.

If the federal government is to be spared the kind of trouble that currently afflicts New York City there will have to be a complete reorganization of government services and expenditures from top to bottom.

Even this might not be sufficient to ward off serious trouble in the decade ahead.

GOOD SALES POSITION

A salesman had been calling on the buyer for a certain firm for more than six months, but the buyer never bought anything. After each interview the salesman would say, "Thank you very much. I wish I had fifty customers like you."

Mystified, the buyer finally said, "Look here, I don't mind your coming in here every week or two and showing your samples. I buy nothing, but you always say the same thing—'Thank you very much. I wish I had fifty customers like you.' Why do you make this statement?"

"Well," replied the salesman, smiling, "right now I have about two hundred customers like you. I really do wish that I had only fifty."

What the Candidates Are Saying

JOANNE ALTER, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Illinois lieutenant governor, has charged that her opponent, Neil Hartigan, is running a silent campaign, and then challenged him to debate her on several campaign issues.

Mrs. Alter said:

"Mayor Daley ordered Neil Hartigan to run for lieutenant governor. That's the major difference between me and my opponent. No one ordered me to run. I want to be lieutenant governor of Illinois. I am speaking out on the issues in this campaign. Neil Hartigan is giving the voters the silent treatment. That's another major difference between us."

Mrs. Alter challenged Hartigan to debate her on the following issues:

The Political Honesty Initiative, which she totally supports:

Safety Booklet

The Onan Corporation is offering its new safety handbook to all persons involved in an environment with electro-mechanical hazards.

The 24-page brochure contains cartoons illustrating safety points, and covers flammable liquids, engine safety, generator safety, electric shock, recreational vehicles, transfer switches, and portable generating sets. A list of safety do's and don't's is also included.

the Michael Howlett-Sun-Steel-Deal, which led Mrs. Alter to call on Howlett to resign his $15,000 dollar a year outside job with Sun Steel Corporation; and attempts by Mayor Daley to reapportion Congressional districts in order to oust anti-Daley legislators.

Take Precautions

Gasoline causes two-thirds of all flammable liquid accidents. Never store it in glass containers, and don't use it to clean clothing stains. Don't fill tanks of gasoline-powered equipment until equipment is cool.

Monday night's village board meeting. These practices have helped destroy downtown shopping centers in other communities.

We will be the first to admit that we have been among the culprits ... the meter feeders. We try to rationalize it by saying that we and our cars are "in and out" a lot on busy days. But we promise to reform and hope the rest of the downtown businessmen and their employees do the same. By not leaving the parking spaces open in front of our stores, we are only killing our own businesses.

At the same time, if the parking spaces in the village lots were reasonable - if you could comfortably fit a car into them - we'd be less inclined to grab that open parking space on Main St... and feed the meter ... and add to the problem.

Village Reconsiders Parking Lot Study

Kasik voted again for the study. So did trustee Bill Seemann. Still against the study, until they get more information, are trustees Ron Cunningham, Arnold Weber and J. Irv Walsh.

"I don't think any of us are against the parking lot concept," Seemann said. "I think it's a long overdue project. But we're concerned that the $3,000 might be wasted."

Walsh said he voted "no" because "we might spend $3,000, nothing will be done and it's going to be a five or 10 year fight to obtain the necessary casements. Let's find out who owns the property and what it would cost."

Walsh said cars would be able to enter from Park Ave., but they couldn't exit on Depot St. without easements from several property owners.

CUNNINGHAM SAID, "I feel we should contact the big property owners to see if they're willing to sell or give easements, before we spend the $3,000. I'm not against the parking. We need it badly."

Weber added he was for the parking lot, too, but "I think it's a good idea to investigate whether we can purchase the land back there."

Haley and a member of the audience, planning commission chairman Ken Wierschem, said they felt the firm that has been representing the village, Harland & Bartholomew, had so much preliminary data available that no other planning firm could do a feasibility study as reasonably.

The Chamber of Commerce's new president, Jack Siegmeier, said:

"We want some positive action. We want to help, and we want the case reopened."

It will be, and it will be discussed again at the Monday, Mar. 1, village board meeting.

Sitting with Siegmeier was Bill Patterson, owner of BJ's Fashions for Men.

Patterson urged the trustees to reconsider doing a feasibility study and noted:

"There's land back there for other uses, too, such as ball diamonds."

Patterson said that downtown merchants in Waukegan and Kenosha acted too late. Without adequate parking downtown, he said he wondered if Antioch would wind up with a series of small shopping centers on the outskirts of the village, "such as Ace Hardware is building," at the intersection of routes 173 and 59.

LIGHT ON "BLACKMAIL"

It's a crime the way some people mistake the derivation of the word "blackmail."

In the early Scottish dialects, according to the Teacher's Scotch Information Centre, the word mail meant rent that was paid, and even in modern Scotland a tenant is still called a mailor. But northern England and Scotland were once plagued with freebooters and unpleasant Robin Hoods who extorted tribute in the form of money or cattle.

Bible Seminar Begins Sunday

The Antioch Evangelical Free Church and the Moody Bible Institute will present a "Bible Prophecy Seminar," featuring lectures and films nightly, Feb. 22-25 at 7:30 p.m.

Moody Bible Institute faculty members participating are Dr. Donald Smith, Dr. Louis Goldberg, and Dr. Walter Dunnett.

Pastor Bernard C. Fosmark invites all persons interested in the study to attend. The church is at Tiffany Road and Highview Drive in Antioch.

HOT LINE TIPS - All of you who keep calling about taking your pet in the cabin should clip this out and keep it on record.

Most airlines allow one pet per cabin and a reservation must be made for it just like yourself.

If you desire to carry a pet in the aircraft cabin, the animal must be comfortably contained in a kennel no larger than 21 inches by 14 inches by 8 inches, which will fit under a seat.

Also, unless the pet is extremely docile it must be tranquilized. A yipping seat partner from New York to Hong Kong could make it a long trip. Some pets have traveled more than people and are old pros at it. Mrs. Gaa's little black poodle is one of those pro travelers and loves it.

Dale Sisson Does Research On Rivers

"Stream and river systems support a multitude of plant and animal life forms. It's important to know the effects of weather modification, extreme weather changes and industrial development on these vital watercourses," said Dale Sisson of Antioch.

Sisson, 26, is a graduate student at Utah State University working toward a master's degree in civil engineering. He is collecting data from a research station in order to create a computer program model capable of predicting changes in stream and river systems.

"Accurate prediction takes a fantastic amount of data - the more data, the greater the probability of predicting a change or series of changes accurately," Sisson commented. "Ideally, a project of this nature would run continuously, so that new data could be added to the model as it was accumulated."

Sisson began working on the project in May 1974. He received his undergraduate degree in geography from Western Illinois University. He is the son of Victor and Margaret Sisson of Antioch.

the leaders of the Conservation Club and the 885 Civic Club, co-sponsors of the two-day festival on ice.

CUTTING HOLES for ice fishing and winning the men's and ladies' auger contests at Saturday's derby on Channel Lake were James Spizewski of Des Plaines and Jean Rockow of Antioch.

Did You Know...

—Congressman Natcher (D-KY) holds the new House record for answering every roll call vote since he came to office in 1954.

—According to a Harris survey taken in November 1975, 61 per cent of those contacted favored gradual decontrol of domestic oil and gas so that oil companies would have sufficient incentive to develop new energy resources.

—A contributing factor to New York's financial problem is a provision in the Civil Service Employees Association contract which permits workers to take paid days off to engage in union activities—annual cost is estimated at $700,000.

—After three months of decline, the nation's welfare population increased in August by 52,200. Total Federal and State taxes spent on welfare amounted to two billion dollars during August.

EGG-THROWING CONTESTS are always fun, especially for the lone survivors. Winners Saturday at the Antioch Ice Fishing Derby were Joe and Sarah Lehner.

Ice Fishing Derby

JEAN ROCKOW of Antioch won the ladies' auger contest for the third straight year. Helen Darnel won the ladies' fishing contest and Gregory Collins the men's sack race.

Also on Saturday, Mike Bailey of Antioch won the boys' sack race, Melody Aronson the girls' sack race, Jeffery Johnson the minnow-guessing contest, and Jason Johnson the ice-weight guessing contest.

Joe and Sarah Lehner won the egg-throwing event.

On Sunday, Bob Dow won the men's chisel competition, Wayne Dyer the men's auger contest; Mary Rockow, the ladies' auger contest; Debbie Duha and Bill Ramig, egg-throwing contests, and - in sack races - Eric Enzenbacher, Jeff Lenke, Kathy Bailey and Chris Bryne.

Larry Meierdirk and Jim Heath won the sled race. Because of the lack of snow, sled dog races were cancelled.

An unusual and unscheduled event, was the air-drop of 250 styrofoam minnow buckets donated by the Frostee Foam Co. of Antioch. These were collected by all who chased them down and will make fine additions to their owners' fishing gear.

All in all, another very successful Derby.

SCOOP!

Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, will be in Antioch on Friday, Mar. 12.

Frank ReCupido, local Democratic party leader, said Howlett will meet Antioch voters at Lorenz's Smart Country House during a cocktail party from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

NO MATTER what any state or federal government tries to tell you, George Washington's birthday is Feb. 22. Also celebrating their birthdays on that date, which will be Sunday, are two of our good Antioch friends: Kenn Rosenbrock and Bunny Mihovilovich.

Let's see now. There was a big snowmobile party up in Rhinelander for three or four days and among those attending were those wonderful people from Antioch: Ray and Barb Gallaher, Bill Carney, Dale Fransch, Bob Kelley and some of their children. They were the guests of Jerry Staffon, ex-Antioch fireman who lives in those parts. (Hope we didn't leave out any names, and we're sorry that you snowmobilers didn't enjoy the spring-like weather of the past week as much as we did. Ha! Ha!)

JIM KOPPA has returned home from an 8-day trip to Japan. Of course, it was quite hectic for him for business reasons, since Jim was representing International Harvester, but he did manage to enjoy much of the extreme hospitality of the Japanese and their beautiful countryside.

Jim remarked that he has never seen such a clean city as Tokyo and can you imagine, cab drivers wear white gloves!

I guess you can say Jim was treated as royalty and hopes for a return visit (but the next time, Susie certainly wants to go along).

He did say that we Americans could learn a lot from the Japanese.

BINGO! The Antioch and Grayslake VFW posts are going into it together.

"We have the same purpose," said Jim Egem, public relations man for the Antioch post. "We each want to get a home post of our own."

Mr. Egem points out that VFW members visit hospitals, help widows and children of veterans and want to be of help to their community.

Only veterans who served overseas and earned a campaign medal can join the VFW.

Membership ranges from $10 to $11 and members get a $1,200 accident insurance policy, paid in full.

"We will be at the First National Bank Friday and Saturday to answer questions about joining our post," said Mr. Egem. "We still have our newspaper drive and our trailer is parked at the town garage on Turner and Cunningham drives. If you need help, just call me, Jim Egem, at 395-5512, and we'll come out and pick it up."

The bingo begins next Tuesday night at Antioch Country Club. See the advertisement elsewhere in today's paper.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE in order for Tracey Tobias and Kathy Cirone. These gals spent endless hours over at Wilmot training to be on the National Ski Patrol. After a 4-hour test last week, Tracey and Kathy are now confirmed ski patrollers.

HOLIDAY PARK, Ingleside, is the area selected once again by the Ski Patrol for the 7th Annual Silly Slalom races. Ski Patrollers from this region will be competing for the "Ruptured Duck Trophy" on Saturday at 4 p.m. You won't want to miss the fun, games, good food and especially this "silly" event. Bring your rooting section!

Some people believe that if you sleep with your closet door open, it's bad luck!

PM&L's 'Streetcar' Is Strong Play

Whenever I see a play by Tennessee Williams I'm a little like the young girl who wrote a report on a book about penguins by saying:

"This book told me more about penguins than I wanted to know." Mr. Williams tells me more about some people than I am comfortable knowing.

"A Streetcar Named Desire," the current production at the PM&L Theatre in Antioch, is no exception. Williams has created a complex play which centers on the human conflict between Blanche DuBois and her brother-in-law, Stanley Kowalski, and, symbolically, the conflict between the old romantic South and newly emerging raw, crude South.

TESSA SMITH as Blanche created a nearly flawless performance and drew as much sympathy from the character as one could expect. She seemed perfectly cast for her part as the fragile remnant of a dying age.

Donn Britten as Stanley Kowalski could have worked for more subtlety in his performance. Donn's performance may have been marred by a temperature of 101, which plagued him on opening night, but it seemed as though he occasionally lunged at his role without truly understanding why he was lunging.

Don Beveroth, as Mitch, did an outstanding job as a man who almost finds love with Blanche. Dena Fabry as Stella Kowalski, Blanche's sister, did a good job with a less than inspiring role.

DIRECTOR TOM Hausman has drawn uniformly good performances from all his cast and should be commended for holding together a play difficult even for a professional cast. I could have wished for more intense dramatic highs and lows rather than the somewhat even pace which marked opening night. This may come as the cast relaxes into the rest of the run.

It always amazes me how much stage setting PM&L can mount on what must be one of the world's smallest stages. The set for Streetcar, designed by director Hausman and built by Ken Smouse and Dolores Kratz, is extremely impressive. Impossible to describe adequately, it must be seen to be believed! I only wish the stage crew would observe the same conventions as the actors - its a little unnerving to see people walking through walls which we, the audience, have worked so hard to believe in.

All-in-all, PM&L must be commended for a job well done. "A Streetcar Named Desire" is truly worthwhile theatre but, more important, the PM&L production is a play worth seeing.

There are two more weekends to catch the play, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 20 and 21, and Feb. 27 and 28. Call 395-3055 for reservations. -Jerry Pfarr

The play will be the "Skin of Our Teeth," by the late Thornton Wilder, and will be pre-

In each period the world survived "by the skin of its teeth."

Lakehurst Displays NAMES in the News

Art lovers have an opportunity Saturday and Sunday to view the work of top young artists and pick out the "masters" of the future.

The first Lakehurst College Art Show is an innovation in art exhibits featuring oil paintings, water colors, acrylics, pencil and charcoal drawings; printed graphics such as etchings, silkscreens and lithographs; sculpture, ceramics and weaving.

Participating schools are Barat College, Lake Forest; Harper College, Palatine;

Northwestern University, Evanston; Mundelein College, Chicago; and Rosary College, River Forest. The show is being coordinated by Albert Pounian.

"For the public, this may well be the chance to buy the Picasso of tomorrow. The students price their art very modestly, and of course every piece has been hand-picked by each school's art department," he says.

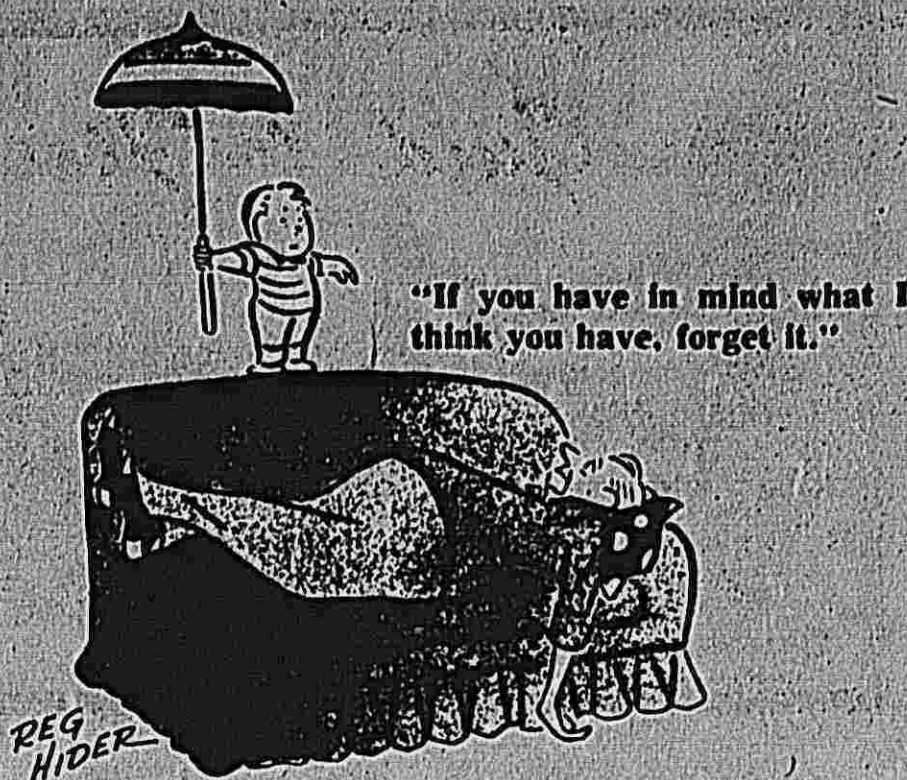

Hours of the free public show are 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday and from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

TWO ANTIOCH students will perform in the North Central College Theatre Guild production of "H.M.S. Pinafore." They are Laurie and Colleen L. Good.

Laurie will perform the role of Cousin Hebe. She is a senior at North Central and is majoring in education. Colleen, a freshman at the college, will perform in the chorus.

They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Good, 422 Harden St. Both are graduates of Grant High School.

Performances will be given starting Friday on the college campus in Naperville.

VIP Announcement Coming Next Week

By BETTY HOPE

You have probably been wondering why Antioch's 1976 V.I.P. has not yet been announced. The reason for the delay is that the method of selection is being reorganized.

The announcement will be made in next week's Antioch News.

Co-chairmen Fr. Robert Melcher and Chuck and Betty Hope, along with past-chairlady Betty Podlin, met recently to discuss the changes.

It was decided that the Antioch community should be represented on the selection committee, since St. Peter's V.I.P. Dinner-Dance (Saturday, Mar. 27) is basically a community affair.

past chairman of the annual event; one of the present chairmen and Fr. Robert Melcher of St. Peter's.

Another change will be the manner of selection. In past years the V.I.P. was selected by name. This year a resume of each candidate's qualifications has been written, and the resumes are numbered.

The committee will choose the most deserving candidate from the resumes not knowing the name of the winning candidate until after it has made the selection. Fr. Melcher then will read the name from the master list containing the number of the resume and the name of the candidate.

Prayer Groups Gather Sunday

Prayer groups of northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin will hold a Day of Renewal at St. Benedict's Abbey, Benet Lake, just north of Antioch, on Sunday.

Sr. Jeanne Hill will speak on the healing ministry.

The schedule for the day includes a 10:30 a.m. Mass with the Benedictine community. At 12 noon there will be a pot-luck (bring a dish).

Admission is free and the public is invited to join at anytime during the day.

For more information persons can contact Fr. Henry at St. Benedict's Abbey, (414) 396-4311.

Crunch!

Chicago (NFS) - Pretzels, potato chips, and other snack foods have a way of going limp once you've opened the bag or box. Moisture is the culprit, says home service advisor Pauline Church. She advises storing these foods in airtight containers such as Freezettes with snug-fitting lids.

Made of frost white translucent plastic and designed to stack for easy storage, they come in numerous shapes and sizes to accommodate all types of food.

Treasury Says It's No Joke, $2 Bill Is Back

If you received one on April 1, you might think it was an April Fool's joke, so the U.S. Treasury Department is waiting until April 13 to reissue the $2 bill.

Printing of the bill was discontinued in 1966, with the low level of public demand cited as the primary reason. Reissuance of the bill was prompted by recent studies which show major savings resulting from the reduction in the number of $1 bills required.

At present, the $1 bill represents about 60 per cent, or 1.7 billion, of the total number of currency pieces produced annually. By gradually replacing half of the face value of the annual requirement with $2 notes, the Treasury expects to save $35 million over the next five years.

A portrait of Thomas Jefferson by Gilbert Stuart will be on the face of the bill, and a rendition of "The Signing of the Declaration of Independence" by John Trumbull will be on the back.

By April 13, 1976, which is Thomas Jefferson's birthday, more than 225 million $2 bills will be ready.

Championship Game Here Saturday

This weekend the Antioch Sequoits get a chance to prove they are champions.

The Northwest Suburban basketball title is on the line as the Sequoits play at Warren Friday night and then host second-place Woodstock Saturday night.

Both varsity games will begin at 8 or 8:15 o'clock, following sophomore skirmishes.

The game against Woodstock is "Parents Night." Parents of the Antioch players and cheerleaders will be honored and Coach Roger Andrews said he is hoping for a big crowd.

THE GAME alone should bring out the fans. Antioch leads the league with a 9-1 record and has three games to play. Woodstock's Blue Streaks have a 9-2 record with two games remaining.

The contest also will feature the league's two leading scorers, Antioch's Scott Kimball and Woodstock's Nick Seichow. Each is averaging about 20 points a game. And each has a talented array of teammates backing him up.

Woodstock is fresh from two wins last weekend, 54-43 over Warren and 57-44 over Grayslake. Antioch also defeated Grayslake, but suffered its first conference defeat last Friday when it was upset by Grant 53-52.

After playing Warren at Gurnee on Friday, and Woodstock here Saturday, Antioch concludes the conference race against Stevenson at Prairie View on Friday, Feb. 27.

THESE ARE the conference won-lost records:

Antioch 9-1, Woodstock 9-2, Grant 6-4, Stevenson 6-4, Warren 5-5, Wauconda 5-6, Grayslake 5-6, Lake Zurich 3-7, Round Lake 2-8, Cary-Grove 2-9.

COACH ANDREWS said his team "played a steady game" when it beat Grayslake 68-61 last Wednesday.

"But the offense worked in spurts," he said. "Our shooting from the field was not the best ... but our good rebounding and super play by reserve Pat Houghton carried us through when Scott Kimball sat out much of the second half with foul trouble."

Kimball fouled out in the fourth quarter.

"Mitch Witt had a very good game, scoring 20 points and grabbing 11 rebounds," the coach said. "We had four players in double figures again - solid balance and then very good rebounding from the front line as we won the battle of the boards, 42-25."

George Ferguson and Witt led the rebounders with 11 each.

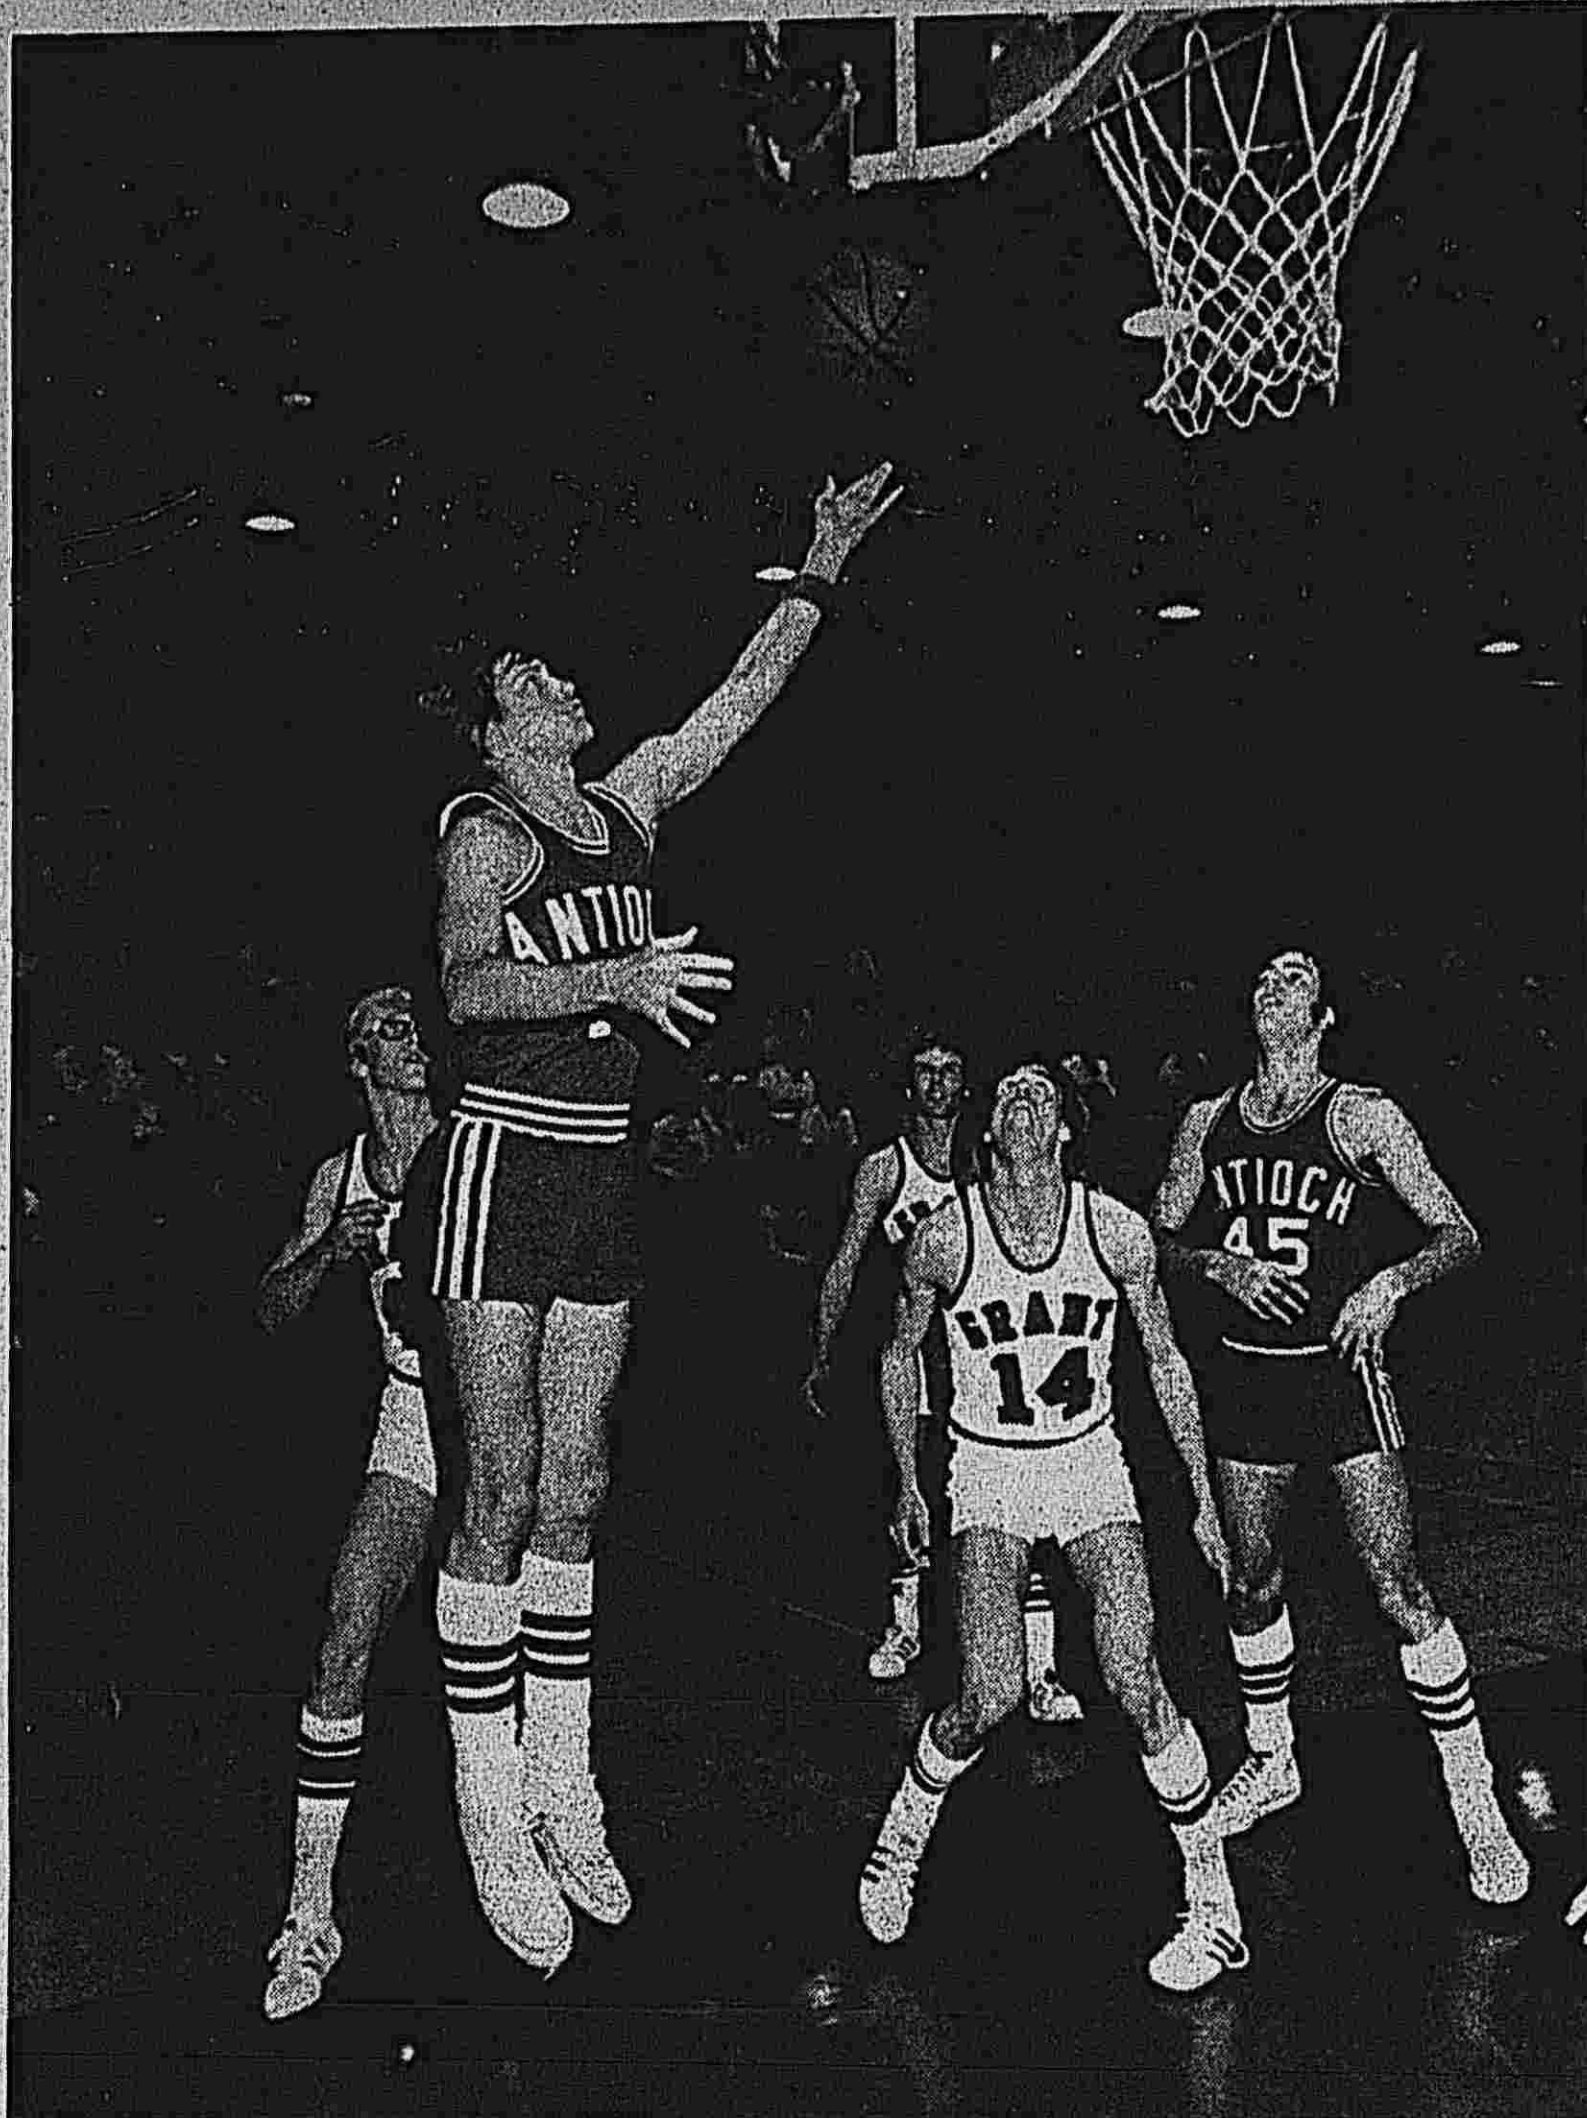

HOW DO you explain Antioch's 53-52 loss to Grant last Friday?

"We got off to a bad start, hitting only four of 15 shots in the first quarter to fall behind 14-8," Andrews said.

"But as each quarter progressed, our team began to pull its game together," the coach added. "Grant was shooting 50 percent from the field and that kept us behind."

In the fourth quarter the Sequoits' half-court press gave Grant problems. But after the Sequoits went ahead 50-47 and Antioch fans were leaping and cheering, sure their team had saved the game, the breaks all went to Grant.

Antioch had three traveling violations and missed two free throws. Also, two fouls were called on Antioch and Grant took advantage of the mistakes to pull out the win. "Our poor shooting and also hitting only 10 of 20 free throw attempts hurt us," Andrews said. "So did the 15 violations we committed."

Grant Spills Antioch By One

By MIKE WITT

Grant is tough at home. It has a history of giving Antioch trouble and Friday night was no exception as the Bulldogs pulled off a 53-52 upset, handing Antioch its first conference defeat.

It was the Sequoits' fourth game in eight days and they just didn't have enough in the end to beat the inspired Grant team.

The Bulldogs scored the first six points of the game, and raced to a 14-8 first quarter lead.

IT WAS obvious at this point that Grant really wanted this game and that it was going to be close all the way.

The second quarter saw Antioch switch to a 2-3 zone defense from a man-to-man and they played on even terms. And even though Grant had a nine point lead at one point, both teams scored 12 points for a 26-20 halftime score.

During the third quarter, the teams again played evenly as each scored 15 points, and Grant hung onto its six point lead.

ANTIOCH HAD its work cut out for the fourth quarter and just did barely miss.

Grant led by seven with a little more than four minutes remaining when the Sequoits made their move.

They put on a half-court pinch press and Grant almost totally collapsed.

Tom Gutowski, Tom McAvoy, and Jon Bodin entered the game at this point to put some life into the press.

IT WORKED. They scored four straight buckets to take the lead. A 10-footer by Bob Dubek tied the game and a bucket by Gutowski put them ahead, 50-47. Gutowski missed on his chance for a three-point play and George Ferguson fouled out trying to get the rebound.

Grant came down the court and scored to cut Antioch's lead to one, 50-49. Antioch's lead was its first of the game.

Then Antioch turned over the ball and Grant converted on two free throws to take a 51-50 lead.

Antioch had about 20 seconds to work with and set up a play for Scott Kimball. But he was heavily guarded and turned over the ball trying to get away to drive to the basket.

Antioch fouled again and Grant converted twice more for a 53-50 lead.

A BASKET at the buzzer by Kimball was too little and too late and Grant had its upset.

Kimball was high man with 19 points, followed by Mitch Witt with 11 points, nine in the first half.

Grant outrebounded Antioch 20-19, shot even with the Sequoits from the field, and beat them at the line.

When something like this happens everyone asks, "Why?"

You can point to some big factors such as Antioch's 23 turnovers, or its unusually bad night at the line (10-21), or little things like a lane violation that nullified a good free throw.

BUT THESE things are a part of basketball, and on this night Grant was simply a one-point better team.

The Sequoits will get another shot at Grant in the regionals if they both win their first-round games.

Antioch has a one-game conference lead over Woodstock which visits here Saturday night for a showdown.

But first the Sequoits must travel to Warren Friday to take on the Blue Devils in the "pit." That place can sometimes make Grant's court feel like home. It is going to be a tough weekend for Antioch.

Jena Hameau Wins $15 in Her First Try

Grant upset Antioch by one point in last Friday's basketball game.

Only five of the many entrants in the Antioch News' basketball contest forecast the upset.

Coming closest was Jena Hameau of Trevor, who predicted Grant would win by two points. Jena, 22, wins $15 in cash from Antioch Firestone.

It was the first time she entered our contest and said that her husband talked her into it. Her husband, Chuck, missed by only two points a week earlier in forecasting the Antioch-North Chicago game.

Second prize this week goes to Donna Gutowski, who picked Grant to beat Antioch by three points. Donna will receive a $10 gift certificate from Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Co.

Third Prize, a $5 gift certificate at Stanley's Men's Fashions, goes to Dave Zeien, who picked Grant to win by four points.

The only others who forecast the Grant victory were Dave Gutowski, who said five points, and Bernie Gutowski, who picked Grant by nine.

Another contest appears in today's paper. It's easy. All you have to do is predict the outcome of Antioch's Saturday championship game against Woodstock. Be sure to get your entries in by 5 p.m. Friday, because Friday night's game at Warren is the tie-breaker.

Antioch Sophs 10-0 in League

Antioch High's sophomore basketball team just keeps on winning. It looks like some of the sophs will come in handy next winter when the varsity is looking for replacements for the many seniors it will be losing.

The sophs are 10-0 in their conference after beating Grayslake 48-39 last Wednesday and Grant 52-40 on Friday.

Balanced scoring whipped Grayslake. Bill Dubek led Antioch with 12 points, followed by Tom Huebner with 11, and Tracy Sodman and Brian Andrews with 9 each.

Tim Huebner paced the win over Grant by firing in 17 points.

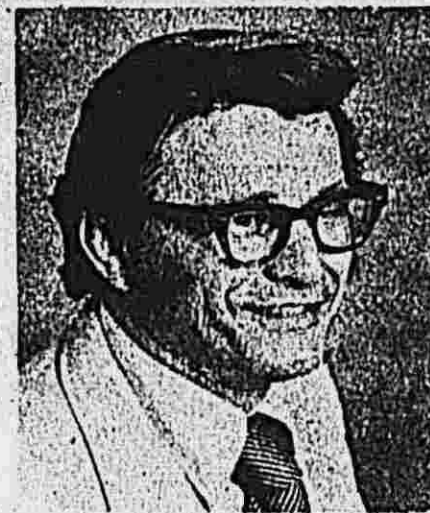

Antioch enjoyed a 22-point lead midway in the fourth quarter and coasted to an easy win. Dubek added 9 points while John Eder and Sodman each scored 7.

The sophs continue conference play at Warren Friday night and then at home against Woodstock Saturday night.

Emmons' 'B' Team Is 7-0 in League

The Emmons School "B" team has retained possession of first place in the Big Six Conference basketball race. The Raiders have a 7-0 conference record and are 12-1 overall.

Peter Weber leads the "B" team in scoring with 95 points. The next leading scorers are Garr Volling with 69, Bob Thain with 67 and Dan Johnson with 64.

Thain is the leading defender with 50 steals. Greg Schroeder has usually drawn the assignment of guarding the opposition's leading scorer. He usually stops them cold. Also Steve Sheedlo has contributed tremendously with his rebounding, Coach Chuck Spillner says.

Coach Spillner credits the bench with giving the first string a lot of competition in practice, thereby improving the game performances.

Helping out have been seventh grader Bill Witek, sixth graders Chris Willems, Chuck Duha, Dale Plechaty, Rick Ranney, and fifth graders Craig Sheedlo, Tim Hartokolis and Luke Kuligowski.

Price Controls Would Hinder Inflation Fight

The National Association of Manufacturers recently cautioned legislators against reinstituting wage-price controls.

The nation is still suffering from the damage done by the wage-price control system that was abolished 14 months ago, Austin J. Paddock, executive vice president and chief operating officer, Pennsylvania Engineering Corp., told the House Banking, Currency and Housing Committee's Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization.

Mr. Paddock, who is chairman of NAM's Committee on Economic Policy, declared legislation aimed at new attempts at government wage-price intervention would obstruct, rather than assist, the current move toward a more moderate rate of inflation. He cautioned that a business firm will be inhibited in experimental moves toward price reduction if it might subsequently be locked into lower price schedules by renewed price control action.

Mr. Paddock urged restraint in federal spending, noting that "if national fiscal and monetary policy is mishandled, there is a real likelihood of a new wave of inflation."

First National Bank Backs Local Swimmers

Seventeen Antioch swimmers were involved in the recent Waukegan YMCA Swim-a-Rama to raise funds for the swim team and a new YMCA facility.

The First National Bank of Antioch sponsored the team with a pledge of $100. The bank also sponsored Craig White, 11, a member of the Antioch swim team and swam 20 miles in the event.

His brother Bryan, 7, also earned a prize.

Frank Bessette, 17, swam the most miles, 41 1/4, during the 48-hour event. He was followed by his brother, Theodore, 12, with 38 1/2 miles.

As a team, Antioch beat its own pledge by 14 miles, swimming 320 miles in spite of the illness of two team members who could not perform.

Emmons Raiders Develop Into Strong Team

The Emmons Raiders started the 8th grade basketball season with many problems.

Following the Salem Invitational at Christmas break, the Raiders began putting together their game and have emerged as a power on the local scene, such as Raider teams of the past five years.

Leading the defensive turn-about is Chris Kempinski at forward and Mike O'Brien at guard.

Kempinski is always assigned the rivals, top big man, while O'Brien is matched against the player who directs the opposition offense.

Contributing to rebounding strength are Kurt Selak (46 on offense, 70 on defense) and Ron Nauman (50 offense, 66 defense). Adding balance are Dee Maras with 66, Tim Webb 81, and Kempinski 77.

The offense is led by Selak with an 11.0 average and 177 total points. Selak has added 21 assists, as has Kempinski, to follow O'Brien's team-high 36.

Maras is the second leading scorer with a 7.4 average. Maras, a 7th grader, has triggered the offense from his high post position.

New Booklet

Many of the problems the eight million people who wear contacts experience can be avoided, says an optometrist at New York's Sight Improvement Center.

"For instance," says Dr. Harry Hollander, "many women irritate their eyes because they apply their contacts after they've put on their cosmetics. As a result, some of the oily or powdery substance in their make-up remains on their fingers and winds up in their eyes when they put on their contacts."

Dr. Hollander's booklet, "Consumer's Guide to Contact Lenses," offers advice to potential buyers, and rules for wearers. It is available free from Invisible Lens Co., 28 West 44th St., New York, NY

Bill Buckmaster has come off the bench to spark the Raiders on several occasions.

The Raiders lead their conference with a 7-0 record and three more wins will give them a perfect record for the third consecutive year. In recent action the Raiders defeated Salem 26-22 before bowing to a tough Fox Lake team 42-38 in the final seconds, and losing to Lake Villa 42-37 after spotting that team a 17-point lead in the first 10 minutes of play.

Back on the conference scene, the Raiders recently defeated a hapless Lotus team 49-31 and a rugged Millburn team 37-31.

The Raiders close their season with a game at Grass Lake Thursday and then will host the conference tournament Feb. 24-26.

Rest Break Needs Vary Among Jobs

The right kind of rest break can affect your on-the-job safety, report University of Cincinnati researchers.

Their studies indicate that people who do physical labor should relax as completely as possible in order to get the most benefit from a rest period.

Those whose work involves mental strain should engage in some kind of mild physical activity. Relaxing completely makes it difficult to return to work, they state.

No matter what your job, regular exercise will help you fight off fatigue. A Harvard University professor discovered that the hearts of athletic students pump more blood in fewer beats than those of sedentary students. Blood receives oxygen from the lungs, and the more oxygen you have in your blood, the less likely you are to become tired.

Wrestlers Win District Title

District wrestling champions - that's Antioch's Sequoias after they won two individual titles and scored points in 10 weight classes last weekend.

The district tournament was held at the local gym and Antioch scored a whopping total of 105 points to easily outdistance Round Lake, with 85 points, and Grant, with 82½.

Antioch got revenge for the previous week, when Grant edged it out of the conference championship.

IN DISTRICT competition only three places win points in each weight class and only the first and second place wrestlers advance to this weekend's sectional tournament at Barrington.

Antioch will send five athletes to the sectional; district champions Robin Aerne, 112 pounds, and Greg Nordstrom, 126; and district runnersup Tom Dye, 98; Marvin Gibson, 105, and Dick Kessler, 185.

Aerne outclassed the 112-pound field in the district, scoring two pins and a 3-0 decision. Nordstrom, who leads the Antioch team with 32 wins this season, won in the district with a bye, a decision and a pin.

Dye placed second at 98 pounds after a heartbreaking 6-5 loss in the finals. Gibson, at 105, lost 9-5 in the finals. Both had early leads but lost late in their championship matches.

Coach Ted DeRousse attributed the losses of Dye and Gibson to inexperience.

"Both Tom and Marvin were the class of the tournament," the coach said, "but they went away from their styles in attempts to beat the clock. It was a tough lesson, since both lost titles ... but it's a mistake they'll never make again."

IN DISTRICT competition a wrestler must defend his second-place spot if he hasn't beaten the wrestler who finishes third. Both Dye and Gibson had to wrestle to defend their right to advance to the sectional and DeRousse said both "showed maturity and poise by winning their extra matches."

At 138 pounds John Kakacek, wearing a face mask because of an eye injury suffered two weeks ago, lost in the finals and was beaten 12-10 in his wrestling back; so he had to settle for third place.

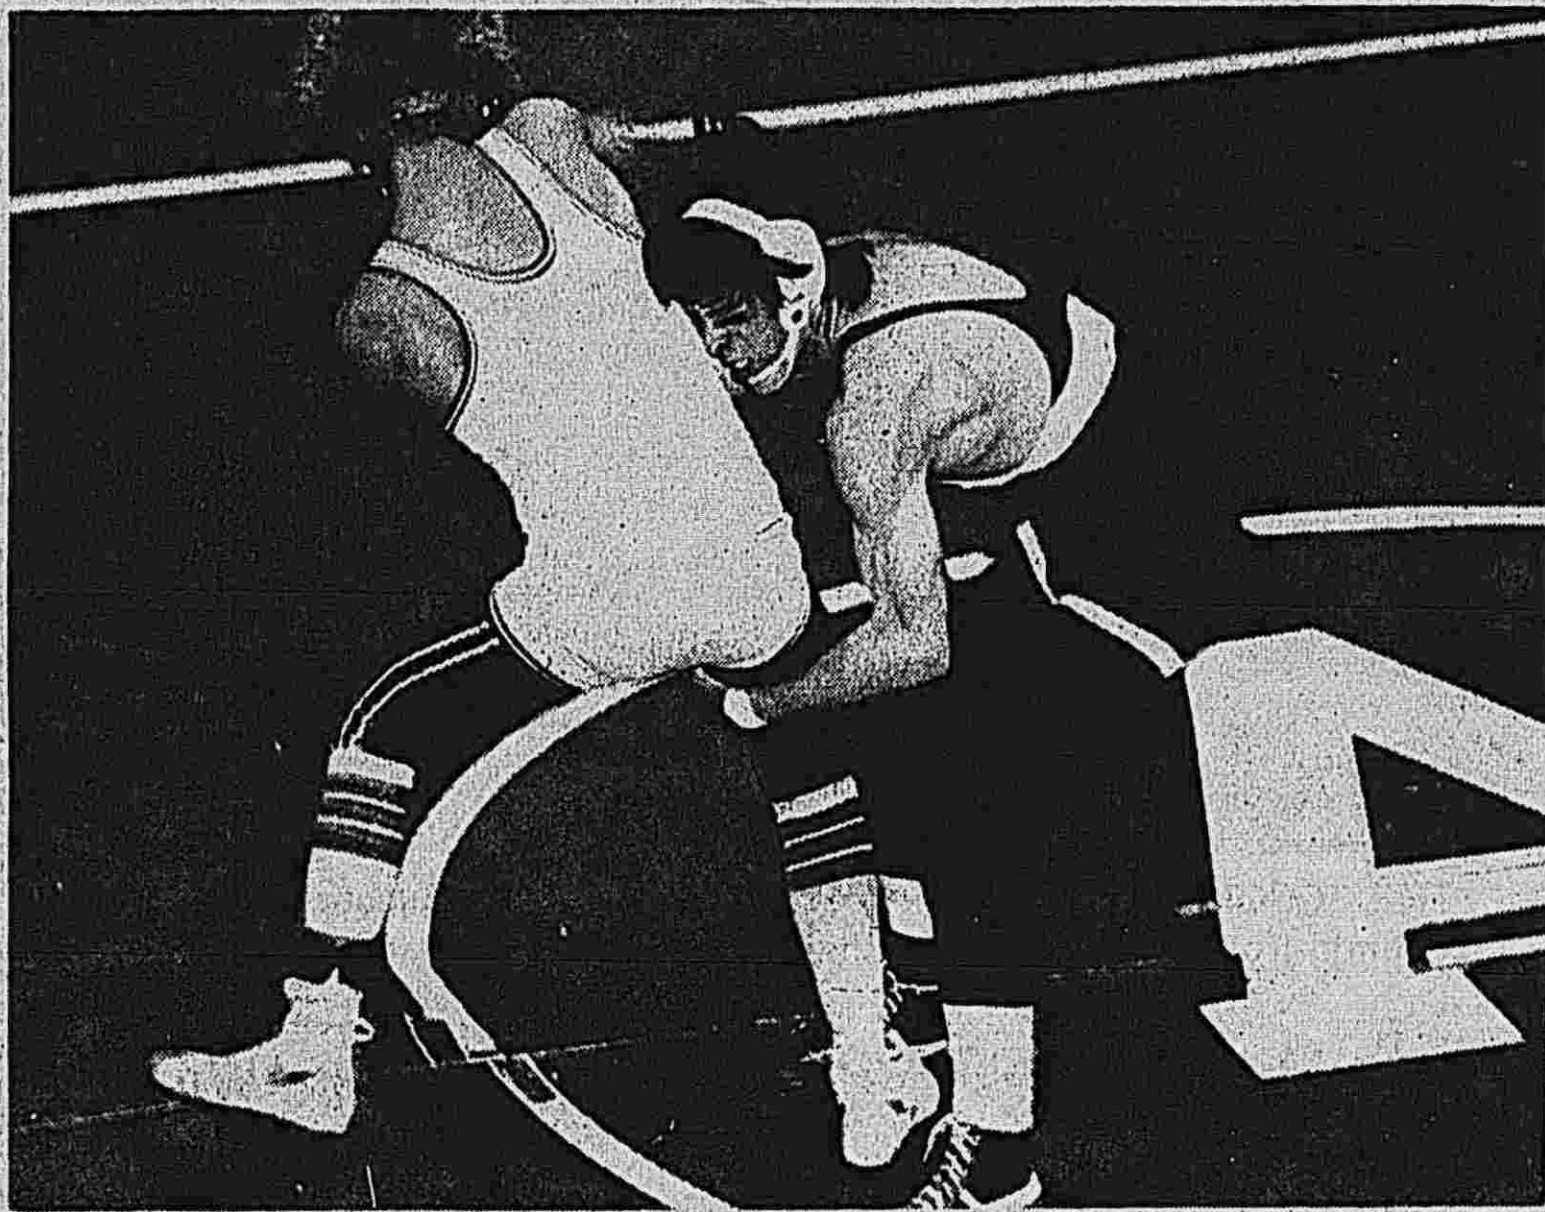

Kessler lost by only 3-2 in his championship match.

Finishing third for Antioch were John Davis at 119; Geo Nordstrom at 145 and Heavyweight Bob Ducato. Dave Bogaerts was fourth at 155 pounds.

THE SECTIONAL at Barrington begins Friday at 7 p.m. Survivors will return Saturday at 1 p.m. and again at 7. The top two in each class will advance to the state tournament.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS -- Antioch High's varsity wrestlers won the district tournament here last Saturday and five of their stars will advance to this weekend's sectional meet at Barrington. Coach Ted DeRousse is at the right.

GREG NORDSTROM of Antioch (right) wrestles his way to a district championship at 126 pounds. Greg has 32 victories this season and will be going after a sectional title this weekend at Barrington.

Upper Grade Wrestlers Win Big Meet

Last Saturday, the Antioch Upper Grade School wrestling Apaches won a tough, eight-team invitational tournament at Wilmington, Ill.

The team compiled 88 points to win, while Coal City placed second with 69 and Oswego third with 67.

Placing first for the Apaches were Jon Gibson, 75 lbs.; Kevin Murphy, 85; Scott Petersen, 95; Chuck Bogaerts, 118; and Ted Bessette, 143.

Placing second were Mike Rizzo, 65 lbs., and Rob Crowell, 80. Third were Jeff Canella, 90 lbs.; Erdie Cole, 60 lbs.; Mitch Case, 134; Mitch Lasco, 152; and Scott Buxton, heavyweight.

"The entire squad wrestled extremely well, and exhibited great team effort as well as spirit. The Apaches will compete in another tournament, the Northwest conference, this Saturday at Crystal Lake," said Coach Ken Anderson.

The Apaches still must face a tough North Chicago squad on Wednesday of this week, away, and Oak Crest at home on Thursday, Feb. 26.

Although hampered by losing their 112 lb. wrestler, Hal Fox, to an injury, and being hit by the stomach flu, the Apaches are optimistic about remaining undefeated and recapturing the Northwest conference championship, Coach Anderson said.

COFFEE

Facts & Figures

Bicentennial Beverage

In 1773, Bostonians held their famous tea party and helped convert Americans to a nation of coffee drinkers. The furor caused by that act of rebellion established coffee as a "patriotic beverage."

Today, Americans drink over 140 billion cups of coffee a year.

ABOUT GOLF

Getting Greater Distance

In tournament after tournament, top touring pro golfers are proving you can increase distance and accuracy with a graphite shafted golf club.

Using a Graphite shafted golf club, there are three basic approaches to making yourself a better golfer. The most common is to maintain the club swing weight that the golfer is accustomed to by taking some of the weight saved by the lighter graphite shaft and putting it into the club head. The heavier head weight increases distance off the tee without sacrificing accuracy.

The second alternative, for heavier swing weights, puts all of the weight saved by the graphite shaft into the head for maximum distance.

The third alternative is to take weight out of the shaft without adding any to the head. This can actually add distance because the lighter swing weight allows the golfer to accelerate the club head faster.

And it improves accuracy. Playing a lighter club over 18 holes reduces fatigue.

But the real key to success with the graphite golf shaft is selecting a shaft with the stiffness that is right for the golfer. The DynaTorque graphite shaft, for example, which comes in five stiffnesses comparable to steel golf shafts, makes this easy.

Two money-saving tips for homeowners

Too many homeowners have outdated insurance on their property.

So a fire, a storm, vandals or burglars can destroy or steal more than your insurance covers.

With the cost of construction and repairs going up fast, it pays to update your homeowners coverage now.

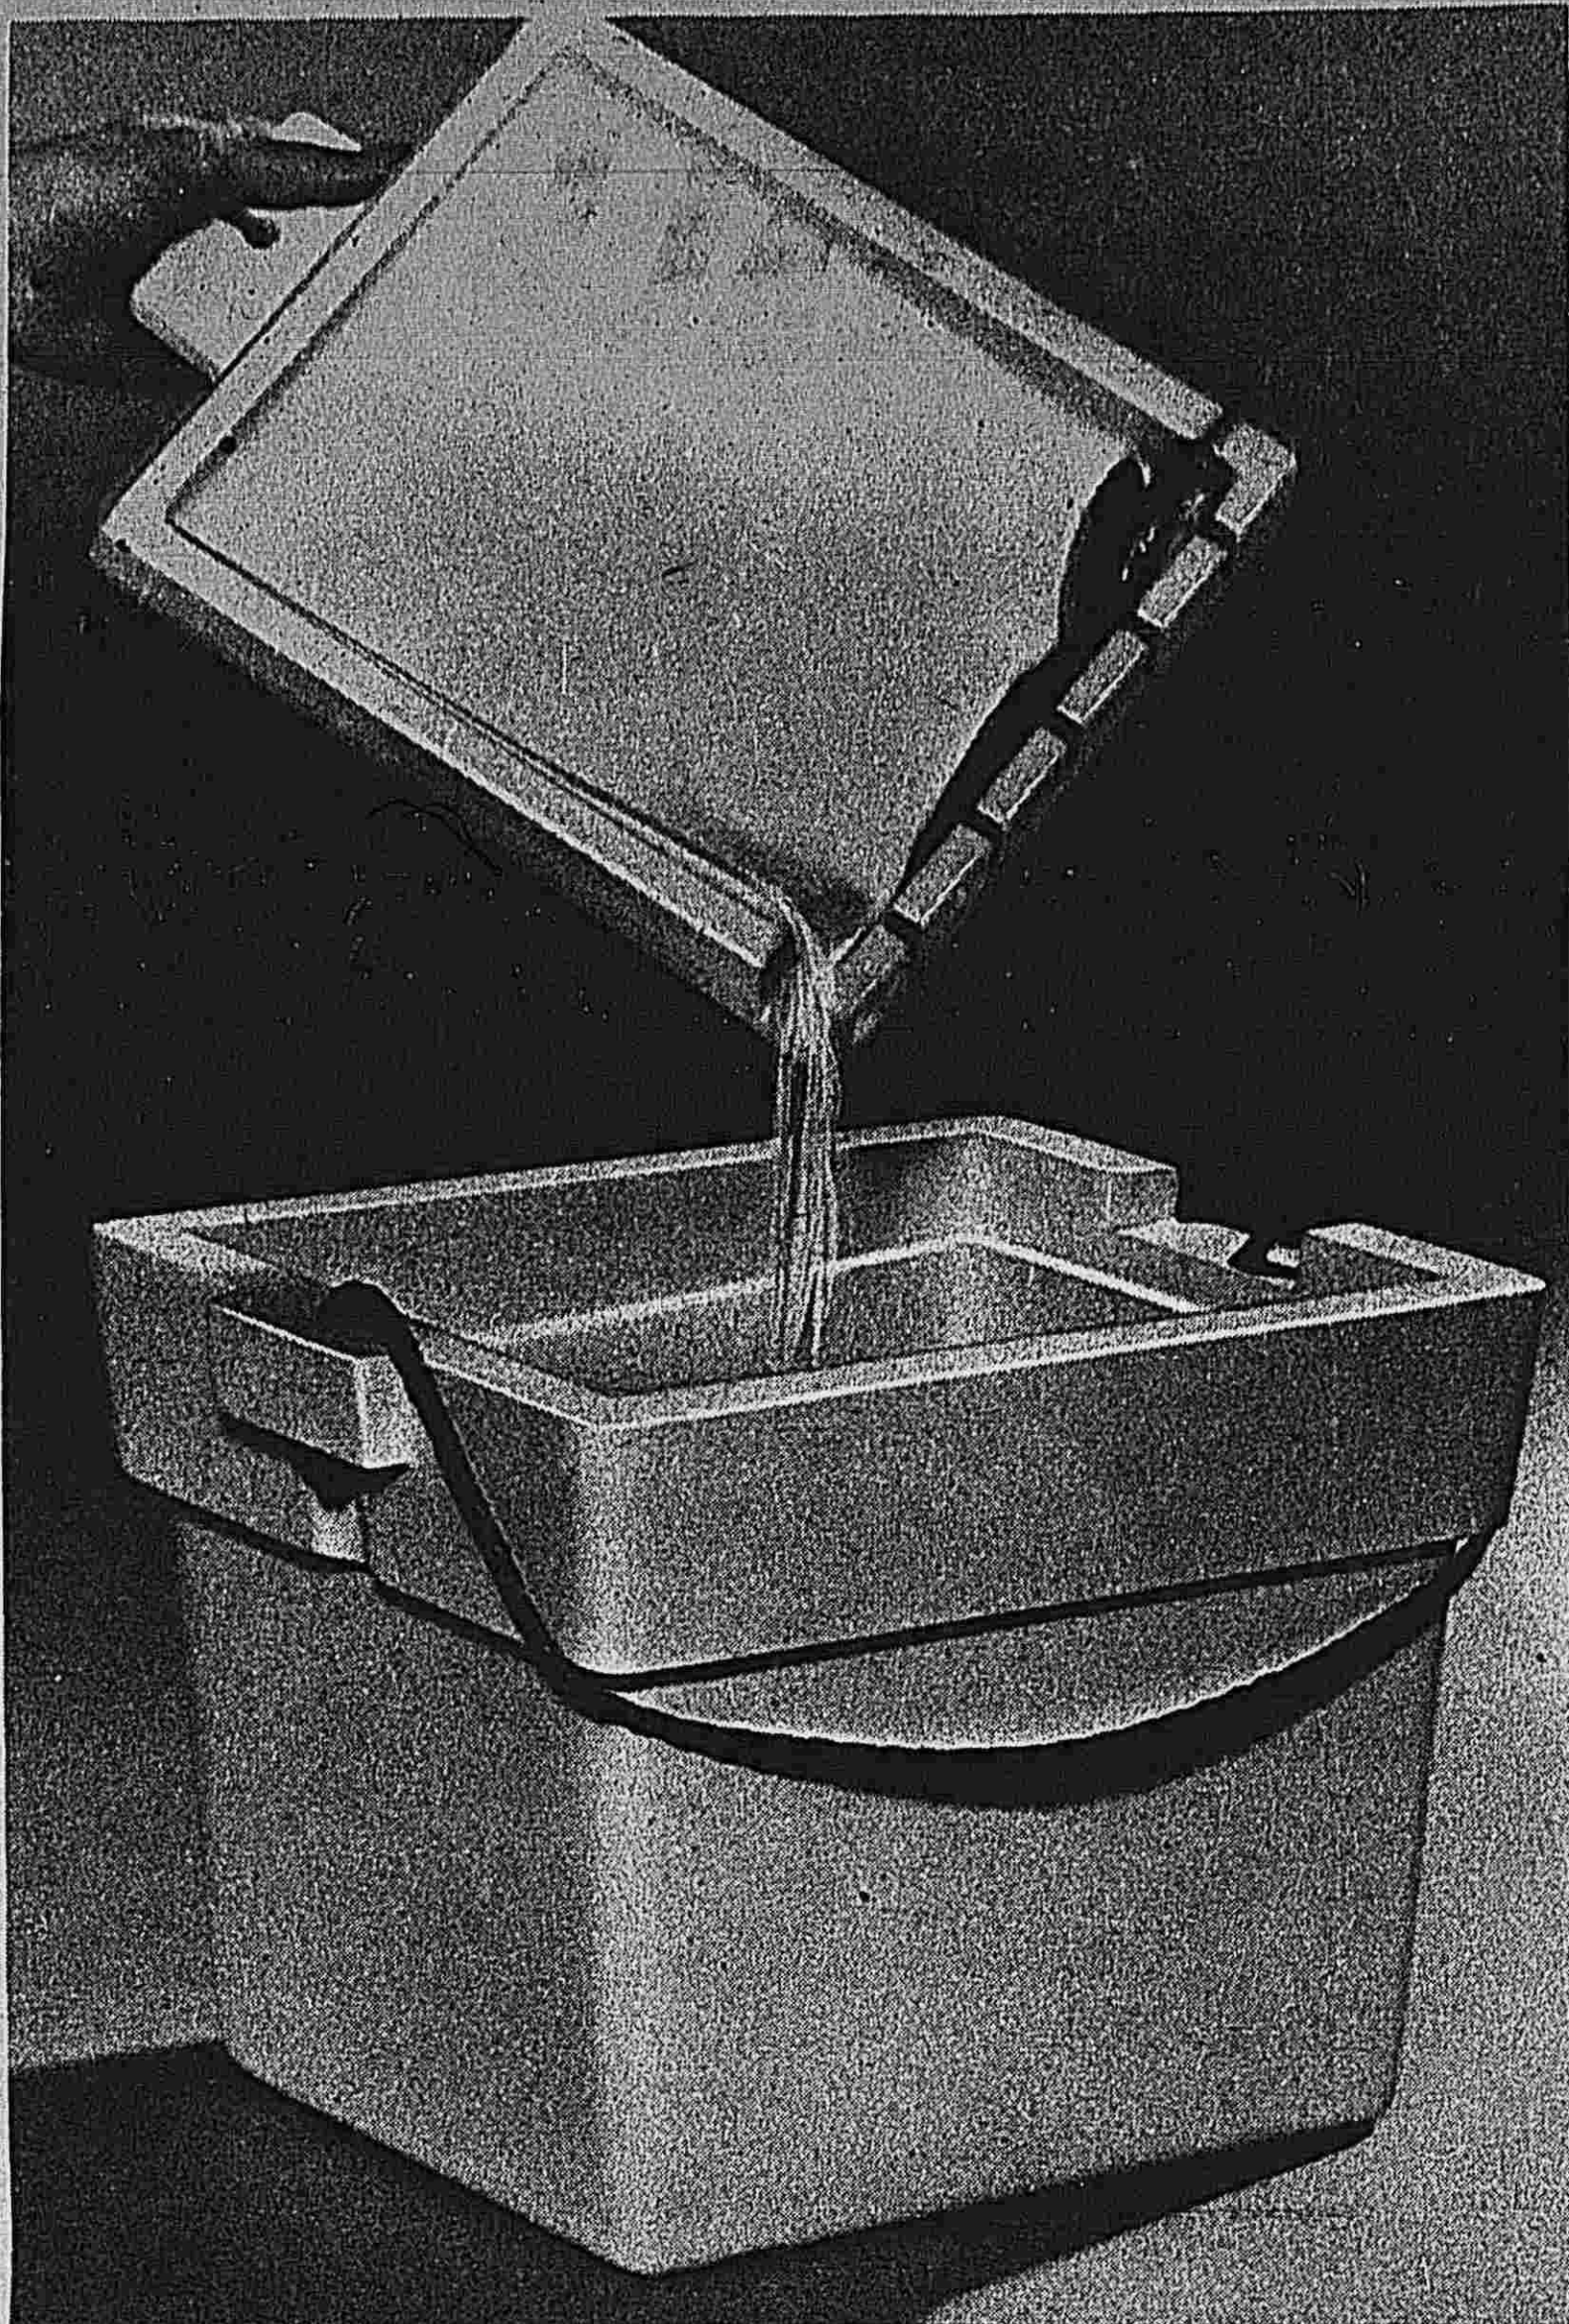

It'll pay you to check with your Country Companies agent, too. Because in most cases, he can give you the coverage you want for less with a Country Mutual homeowners policy.

"THE SCOOP", a new bait bucket with a built-in bait scoop is made by Expanda-Foam, Inc., of Antioch.

Bait Bucket Has Scoop Built Into Lid

A unique, new bait bucket that has a scoop built into its lid to make gathering of the bait easier, was introduced at the National Sporting Goods Show in Chicago.

Called "The Scoop," the product is being manufactured by Expanda-Foam, Inc., of Antioch. It is being added to the company's Carry-Lite line of bait buckets and boxes.

The secret of "The Scoop" is in the lid, which is designed with built-in "fingers."

To gather bait out of the bucket, the lid is removed and dipped inside the bucket. It easily gathers up such bait as minnows, crawfish, tadpoles and so forth, without letting them slip away.

Even though the lid, when covering the bucket, creates a tight, insulated seal, it actually fits inside the bucket, when used as a scoop.

According to Ev Oftedahl,

Expanda-Foam president, in-store surveys taken prior to the National Sporting Goods Show, showed high interest both among fishermen and store buyers.

"The Scoop" is made of the same "Carry-Lite" foam material that has been proven to keep bait alive longer. It measures 9-3/4 inches wide by 12-1/4 inches long by 9 inches deep.

For further information, contact: Marketing Department, Expanda-Foam, Inc., 966 Anita Ave., Antioch, Ill. 60002.

During last weekend's Ice Fishing Derby on Channel Lake, Oftedahl boarded an airplane flown by Jim Hamlin of Antioch and threw more than 2,000 of the buckets (like parachutes) floating down to the ice. Youngsters and adults scrambled and grabbed them up, as additions to their collection of fishing gear.

NEWS OF FOOD

Firemen's Savory Favorites

If the idea of quick, easy, inexpensive, man-sized meals can make your mouth water, here's some hot news for you: 150 recipes have been gathered from the favorites found in America's firehouses and put into a cookbook.

Because their job requires round-the-clock duty, most firemen cook and eat at the station. They opt for the fastest, heartiest and most inexpensive recipes in America—and then they take short cuts.

This unique cookbook was compiled by Dorothy Jackson Kite, the wife of a fireman.

cook, and contains at least one recipe from every one of the fifty states. Called The Firehouse Cookbook, published by Viking and selling for $8.95, it also includes amusing anecdotes about firemen cooks, a short history of fire fighting in America and an explanation of firehouse cooking systems.

There are recipes for spice cake made with a special ingredient, pot roast with spaghetti sauce, tomato aspic, homemade ice cream and venison steak. There are new ways to make old standbys like hamburgers and potatoes, a quick and easy way to make a different and delicious pudding cake that's mixed, baked and served in the same pan, and one-dish meals that minimize cleanup.

Each recipe is given in two forms: one that's enough to feed a firehouse full of hungry men, and another sized to please an average family.
